Songs of Love and War. The year marks the start of a new century and the birth of three very different women: Kitty Deverill, the flame-haired Anglo-Irish daughter of the castle; Bridie Doyle, the daughter of the Irish cook; and Celia Deverill, Kitty's flamboyant English cousin. Together they grow up on the dreamy grounds...

Songs of Love and War is about the class divisions between the Irish and English, as told through the lens of three young protagonists. You have Kitty Deverill, a young girl who is rumbustious and Anglo-Irish, living, in part, in a large castle owned by her family.

A Review of Santa Montefiore's "Songs of Love and War"
Songs of Love and War He is the Lion of Judah, and the murdered Lamb. He is Jesus the Christ, and reigns omnipotent, forever and ever! Celebrate Him, "together with all His Saints."

Songs of Love and War : housechurch.com
Songs of Love and War is a stunning collection of women's voices, each song-poem or landay consisting of a specific number of words in a formal arrangement. Pashtun women are defined by their society and its rigid structure turns them inward; but when they sing, it is not of idealized love but an earthbound one, springing from within their bodies.

Songs of Love and War: Afghan Women's Poetry. The repression of Afghan women has caused untold suffering, particularly through moral subjugation. Infant daughters and their mothers are received with scorn and shame, and lead lives of subordination and humiliation. Their rebellion against these tribal codes comes only through suicide and song.

AllMusic Review by Andy Kellman [+] Not too many R&B artists experience a 13-year gap between debuting and releasing a second album, but here's Tamar Braxton, now known to a younger generation due to her presence on reality television series Braxton Family Values and talk show The Real. Dramatic, spacious ballad "Love and War," released in late...

"Songs Of Love and War" is a glistening jewel in the crown on what was an all too short career. Hopefully the posthumus success of Nick Drake, ironically best known for "Pink Moon" in the Volkswagen commercial, will inspire radio stations to dig into the vaults and pull out the music of Duncan Browne.
